

Name: _____ Date: _____

Other Confusing Words: Exercise 12: Than and Then

Directions: Read the following sentences carefully and choose the correct word (than or then) to write in the blanks.

1. I laughed and _____ I cried.
2. _____ the door flew open, and the dog came running in.
3. My piece of cake is bigger _____ yours.
4. When you get your books together, _____ we will go to the library.
5. We will go shopping first, and _____ we will go for ice cream.
6. The homework took longer _____ I expected.
7. If I knew what was wrong with the clock, _____ I could fix it.
8. May we open the presents and _____ have birthday cake?
9. Who is better at baseball _____ Lionel?
10. Be sure you put in the eggs and _____ the milk when you make pancakes.
11. The dog is bigger _____ the cat.
12. If you get your room cleaned by two o'clock, _____ we will go to the mall.
13. I think you have more money _____ I have.
14. That movie was better _____ the one we saw last week.
15. Make sure you brush your teeth and _____ go to bed.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Verbs: Exercise 12: Choose and ChoseCONFUSING
WORDS*Directions: Read the following sentences carefully and circle the correct verb.

1. Taylor (choose, chose) the brown and white puppy.
2. Which poem will you (choose, chose) to put in the school paper?
3. If I could, I would (choose, chose) Ming for the debating team.
4. Who (choose, chose) ice cream for dessert?
5. I don't know whether to (choose, chose) Spanish or French for a class next year.
6. Do we get to (choose, chose) whom we want on our team?
7. Mrs. Smith said we get to (choose, chose) whom we want to sit next to in math class.
8. Ben (choose, chose) a problem too difficult to demonstrate for the class.
9. If I could pick again, I would (choose, chose) a different color for my bedroom.
10. My brother needs to (choose, chose) a college soon.
11. Please (choose, chose) a slip of paper for the contest drawing.
12. I think I (choose, chose) the wrong shoes to wear in the snow.
13. It is probably a good thing we don't (choose, chose) our brothers and sisters.
14. Sarah was excited that she (choose, chose) to enter the poetry contest.
15. Who do you think they will (choose, chose) to represent the team?

