

Name: _____

Write an "S" next to the simple sentences and write a "C" next to the compound sentences. Circle the coordinating conjunctions as well as identify the subjects and verbs.

1. Some students ate in the cafeteria, but others went outside in the sunshine.
2. The well-known musical is based on T.S. Elliot's poems.
3. Jill and Erica campaigned energetically.
4. This month's school newspaper includes a list of new books in the library.
5. Mr. Kumamoto has uncovered some great fossils, for he is an experienced fossil hunter.
6. My favorite snack is a sandwich and milk.
7. Dark storm clouds gathered above the baseball field, and rain fell steadily.
8. Where will Tim and Eric ride their bicycles this weekend?
9. Iris and Phil took a train to Chicago, St. Louis, and Kansas City.
10. Last night the house felt chilly, so I drank hot tea and curled up with a book.

Name: _____

Write an "S" next to the simple sentences and write a "C" next to the compound sentences. Circle the coordinating conjunctions as well as identify the subjects and verbs.

1. Some students ate in the cafeteria, but others went outside in the sunshine. C
2. The well-known musical is based on T.S. Elliot's poems. S
3. Jill and Erica campaigned energetically. S
4. This month's school newspaper includes a list of new books in the library. S
5. Mr. Kumamoto has uncovered some great fossils, for he is an experienced fossil hunter. C
6. My favorite snack is a sandwich and milk. S
7. Dark storm clouds gathered above the baseball field, and rain fell steadily. C
8. Where will Tim and Eric ride their bicycles this weekend? S
9. Iris and Phil took a train to Chicago, St. Louis, and Kansas City. S
10. Last night the house felt chilly, so I drank hot tea and curled up with a book. C