

Name: _____

Simple and Compound Sentence

Write an "S" next to the simple sentences and write a "C" next to the compound sentences.

1. The snow piled in the driveway, for I couldn't leave.
2. Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, and Neptune have rings.
3. The ice-covered sidewalk was slippery, and several people fell down.
4. Carmen and her aunt skated at the pond after school.
5. Ray-Pec East Middle School is the place to be!

Use the correct coordinating conjunction in the parentheses to complete each sentence.

1. Mom isn't going to watch a movie, _____ is she going to read a book. (but, nor, for)
2. Chemical changes are interesting to learn about, _____ I like learning about animals even more. (but, so, and)
3. In Social Studies, we studied Ancient Greece, _____ now I'm familiar with Greek traditions. (nor, so, yet)

Write a simple sentence in the space below.

Write a compound sentence using the conjunction "or" in the space below.

Write a compound sentence using the conjunction "yet" in the space below.