Lesson 14 Advanced

abstain ab • STAIN VERB to hold back from doing or participating in something [If you have an upset stomach, you should abstain from eating spicy food.]

balderdash BALL•dur•dash NOUN talk or writing that is worthless because it makes no sense [Katrina thought the poem was brilliant; I thought it was balderdash.]

canny KAN•ee ADJECTIVE clever and cautious; showing sharp understanding in one's dealings [Merilee always has money because she's canny about spending it.]

dogged DOG•id ADJECTIVE

not giving in readily; staying with an activity in a steady way [Paula kept working away in a dogged manner even after the rest of us had quit and gone home.]

enlighten en • LITE • un VERB to provide information in a way that frees one from ignorance; to give the light of knowledge to [A week on my uncle's ranch was enough to enlighten me about the difficulties of cattle ranching.]

haggard HAG•urd ADJECTIVE having a worn look, as from grief, illness, or strain [The photos captured the haggard faces of the refugees.]

humdrum HUM•drum ADJECTIVE boringly ordinary [I wish something exciting would interrupt my humdrum existence.]

oaf OAF NOUN

a clumsy, stupid person [It's better to be an oaf on the dance floor than in personal relationships.]

plagiarize PLAY • juh • rize VERB to copy written work done by someone else and present it as one's own [If you plagiarize a magazine article instead of writing your own report, you won't deserve a passing grade.]

plummet PLUM • it VERB to fall straight down; to plunge [If a helicopter's blades stopped turning, it would plummet to the ground.]

savagery SAV-ij-ree NOUN

- 1. the condition of being wild, fierce, or untamed [The dog, which had never had an owner, showed the savagery of a wolf.]
- 2. an act of cruelty or fierceness [We were horrified by the savagery of the attack.]

tangible TAN • juh • bul ADJECTIVE

- 1. able to be touched or felt by touch; having physical form [The coins in his pocket were a tangible reward for his work.]
- 2. specific enough to be grasped with the mind; definite; not vague [The cops suspected Lefty McGurk of the burglaries, but they hadn't yet found any tangible proof of his guilt.]

The dishonest Lefty McGurk
Would burgle and steal with a smirk.
He hadn't much brain,
But he couldn't abstain
From attempting unscrupulous work.

Well, McGurk was an oaf, and his goof Was to trip and to fall through a roof. Now, it sure isn't canny To fall on your fanny While holding a huge sack of proof.

The cops' ultimatum: "Freeze, Lefty!"

ultimatum ul•tuh•MATE•um NOUN a final demand—one that, if refused, will end all dealings [The landlord gave the Smiths an ultimatum: "Pay up or move out."] unscrupulous un • SKROO • pyuh • luss ADJECTIVE without moral principals [Jody is unscrupulous in getting what she wants; she'll do anything.]

zany ZAY•nee ADJECTIVE

funny in a foolish or crazy way [I Love Lucy is a TV show famous for the zany adventures of the main character, Lucy.]

Exercise A: Questions

Write the Word that best answers the question.

USE A WORD ONLY ONE TIME IN EACH EXERCISE.

| 1. | What must a patient do with regard to activity when a doctor orders complete bed rest? | 2 | |
|-----|--|--------------------|--|
| 2. | What describes people who refuse to let failure stop them? | | |
| 3. | What would a rock do if you dropped it from a roof? | 31 | i. |
| 4. | What do teachers attempt to do to their students? | T. | Α |
| 5. | What would an honest writer never do? | | woman fell from |
| Exc | ercise B: Antonyms | wine | third-story dow and |
| | te the Word that is an antonym for each set of words. | plumm the grour | neted to nd below. |
| 6. | exciting; interesting; extraordinary | help | rushing to asked her hat had |
| 7. | energetic; bright-eyed; rested | -] " | nat nad |
| 8. | honest; fair; trustworthy | | |
| 9. | faint; uncertain; unclear | | hap- pened. |
| 10. | suggestion; request; plea | a | "I haven't clue," she |
| 11. | kindness; tenderness; mercy | said | . "I just got nyself!" |
| | ercise C: Synonyms te the Word that could be used in place of each underlined word or ph | rase. "I | do know this sidewalk is tangible! |
| | Oh, please! That excuse is pure nonsense . | | |
| 13. | The viciousness of Mandy's response was shocking. | (N) N. (N) | |
| 14. | Brita's ongoing and determined efforts finally paid off. | | - |
| 15. | To be healthier I have to stop myself from eating junk food. | | |
| 16. | I don't understand the game; please educate me about the rules. | | |
| 17. | Joel's silly, comical behavior gave him a reputation as class clown. | | |
| 18. | The splintered door frame was actual proof that someone had broken into the house. | * 1 | N The state of the |
| 19. | That candidate's smart, sly, knowing approach to running a campaign won the election. | | |

| Ma | itch ea | | hing the left to the p r nearly the sar | | e right | | | A giraffe, a turtle, and an elephant arrived at a small watering hole at the same time. The turtle said to the alarment |
|------------|--|-------------------------------|---|---------------|---------------|--------------|--------------|---|
| | _ 20. | observe an c | oaf A. | purposeful | private ey | e . | | tle said to the elephant "Watch your step, you |
| | _ 21. | canny custo | mer | B, steal som | ne sentence | es 🛭 | 8 | big oaf!" The elephant picked |
| | _ 22. | dogged dete | ctive | C. behold | a bungler | 4 | | up the turtle, tossed in high in the air, and ther |
| | _ 23. | playfully plu | mmet | D. every | yday event | | V | grinned as it plum |
| | _ 24. | , humdrum ha | appening | E. fall | fast for fun | 6 | | meteo into a |
| 5   | 25. | plagiarize a | paragraph | F. sh | narp shoppe | er 🛚 🛚 | | nearby dune. The canny |
| | | e E: Anala letter of the w | >gi∉s vord that comp | letes the ana | logy . | | | giraffe moved to a safer distance before saying, "Enlighten me, |
| | _ 26. | | e crupulous :: ge B. famous | | elligent D | D. considera | ate | please, as to why you responded with such savagery to such a mild |
| | 27. | laugh : cry :: A. soar | - U | C. crav | wl E |). spread | | little insult!" "Aw, the insult was nothing," the elephant |
| | 28. | lion : savage. A. wool | ry :: lamb : B. sheep | C. pas | ture D |). gentlenes | SS | sniffed. "I recognized him as the same unscru- pulous old turtle who |
| - | _ 29. | give : take :: A. ignore | e nlighten : B. change | C. con | ıfuse E |). burden | | cheated me seventeen years ago." |
| | | F: Put It Word that bes | Briefly t completes ea | ch sentence. | . This exerc | ise continue | es on the ne | ext page. |
| 30. | enou | gh. I needed s | as my enemie something soli a weapon. Brie | d—a club or | another re | al object— | | ж |
| 31. | Milton wasn't being serious, not at all. He was being nutty, and he entertained everyone with his goofy, wild, dizzy, absurd behavior. Briefly, Milton was being | | | | | | | |
| 32. | 2. That guy insults people without meaning to, says exactly the wrong thing at the wrong time, behaves like a numbskull and a bonehead, and is a dope. Briefly , he's a real | | | | | | | X |
| 33. | There wasn't anything reasonable in the argument. Every objection was stupid and silly, the points she made were ridiculous, and the ideas were baloney. Briefly , the argument was total | | | | | | | |

| and I had no choice ald fire me. That was that. | out i Briefl | saying that things were going to change t. I could either do as she said, or she'd y, she gave me a clear | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|--|--|--|
| her eyes; she was pale | ; she | ked and exhausted. She had circles under appeared to be ready to collapse from he was | # # # # # # # # # # # # # # # # # # # | | | |
| - Y | Ex | ercise G: Fill-in | 5 | | | |
| Quick LIST | Write the Word that best completes each sentence. | | | | | |
| abstain V. balderdash N. canny ADJ. | 36. | The actions children howl with laughter. | of the circus clowns made the | | | |
| dogged ADJ. enlighten V. | . 37. | My parentsbecause it keeps them from sleeping. | from drinking coffee at night | | | |
| haggard ADJ. humdrum ADJ. | 38. | Mitchell is sohe almost always comes out on top. | _ about making a bargain that | | | |
| oaf N. plagiarize V. plummet V. | 39. | Danielle felt like a totalover the shelves at the store. | when she knocked | | | |
| savagery N. tangible ADJ. | 40. | Listen carefully while I try to maybe you'll understand. | you, and then | | | |
| ultimatum N. unscrupulous ADJ. | 41. | Grizzly bears are known for theireffort should be made to avoid them. | , so every | | | |
| zany ADJ. | 42. | It's both lazy and dishonorable to people's work instead of doing your own. | other | | | |
| "Goodness," replied | 43. | A storekeeper with a reputation for being will soon have few customers. | Dall Itoma | | | |
| the giraffe, "seventeen years ago! You have an amazing memory!" | 44. | Both Mr. and Mrs. Rodriguez lookeda week as new parents with little sleep. | after | | | |
| "Yup," the elephant said. "Turtle recall." | 45. | The paper Alf handed in was athat he has been working harder. | indication | | | |
| "Usually my | 46. | A hawk or an eagle may snatch a chicken or rabbit from the ground | from the sky to | | | |
| parachute opens," | 47. | That rumor is justbelieve such rubbish. | ; surely nobody would | | | |
| Question: What do you have | 48. | It was thee enever gave up, that finally led to the crimin | fforts of two FBI agents, who al's capture. | | | |
| when an unscrupulous cheater is half-buried in | | I spent a darand wishing something interesting would h | appen. | | | |
| Answer: Not enough sand | 50. | His was clear him, he would break up with her. | ar; if she didn't agree to marry | | | |